“ Martha, I am very sorry for your loss, words can not express my sympathy to you and your family. I am regretably not able to be there in person, but you and your family are in my prayers. God loves you and with time He will help you as you already know. I do understand the empty place you now have in your heart, but know that some day we will all be together, until then, remember you have many friends and loved one. Love Debbie Garrett.
