“ Dear Webb family,
I am very sorry to hear about your loss. Dealing with the death of a loved one is so hard. It's always comforting to turn to the Bible for comfort. And the Bible gives us a hope that in the very near future "death will be no more." It also speaks of a resurrection. We will be reunited with our loved ones very shortly. How comforting to know that they are in God's memory. So that's something we can look forward to while dealing with the loss of a loved one.

“ To the Webb family,
I share your grief in losing such a wonderful woman of God. She taught my Sunday School class when I was just a little girl. It was such a blessing to have the opportunity to share my life with such a saintly woman. She made everyone of us feel like we were special to her (which we were), and, she was very precious to every life she influenced.

With Love,

What a wonderful world it would be if everyone had the love and grace that this women had. Met her in 1967 when Jerry and I married and moved into the bottom. I do not believe I ever saw her that she wasn't smiling with that beautiful twinkle in her eyes. She was truly blessed by God and she in turn was a blessing and example to all of us. Rest in Peace
