“ *Mother,
God looked around His garden
and He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids,
and whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke my heart to lose you
but you didn't go alone,
For part of me went with you
the day God called you home.*

*I Love and Miss Both You and Daddy!
Until We All Meet Again,
Debbie*

“ Nannie, it is hard to express all the emotions that have been boiling over since you have left us. I know you are doing good right now, but I feel greedy for wanting you back here. I know you've had a long, hard battle. Believe me, seeing you have to deal with this over the years was harder than any infection, any cold, anything. I have missed the Nannie I knew and loved for a long time, now I miss you even more. But Paw Paw is keeping you company as you two stroll along and look over us. Keep me on a straight path, because I want to go stay with you two again soon.
I love you.

“ Nannie,
I miss you already. I'll always remember my childhood with you and pawpaw. I wish you could have seen what I have grown up to be. I'm going to miss eating your famous cheesecake and hotdogs! Thank you for being a fantastic grandmother. I can't wait to see you and pawpaw again someday in Heaven. Save me a seat at the Kitchen table ;)

“ Edna,

I will always remember the Sunday dinners we had at your house and all the wonderful things you did in your life for Debbie and me.

And I want to leave with some words from a friend:

Ten thousand days in the fire is long enough, you're going home. You're the only one who can hold you're head up high. Shake you're fist at the gate saying: "I'm coming home now!" Fetch me the spirit, the son, and the father. Tell them their pillar of faith has ascended. It's time now! My time now! Give me my, give me my wings!! God bless you Edna, I love you.
