“ Please accept my condolences for the passing of your dear love one. Losing a love one in death is the most painful experience a family will ever have to cope with..because death and sickness were never a part of Jehovah Gods plan for mankind. It was a penalty for disobedince made by our first parents Adam and Eve in the garden of eden. (Genesis 2:16,17) God loves us so much he created in us a desire to live, not die. At Ecclesiastes 3:11 the Bible says he has put eternity in our hearts. He has made a provision that his original plan be fulfilled. (John 3:16; Isaiah 55:11) I hope this brings a measure of comfort and peace to the Lewis family.

To the family of my union brother and my friend Eddie Lewis. Eddie, with his softly spoken voice was a blessing to me. Whenever I got around him he always had an encouraging work habit. He would encourage me to keep doing what I had to do to get the job done. He would say "Bubba" one of these days they might understand. That would always stick in my mind.

Eddie was a good man and was always willing to listen and he gave good advice. He was a blessing to me and his presence at work made a difference. Eddie's life counted and to me his living was not in vain. I thank God for the time we shared at work.

May God bless the Lewis family.
