“ (Step) Mom Eleanor, I miss you. I am sure you are spending time with my late wife, Anna, who passed away on the same day as you...this past January 24, 2022. I find that surreal. I love you. I love Anna, and I am so happy that I will see you both again, and my Dad, too. And my Mom whom you got to know for a long while before she passed away. You two were good friends. Only God can change the heart, and bring true forgiveness as He did with my Mom and with you. For my Mom to come with me to attend Dad's funeral and for her to become a good friend of yours, is just amazing.
hugs .
Your step-son, Eric

“ My dear Aunt Eleanor was one of the kindest people I ever knew. She always loved me and my late brother David Lester so very much, since we were little kids playing and exploring her always-beautiful home. She was generous of spirit, and I could always talk with her about anything. Aunt Eleanor, I will always miss you. Rest in peace with our Lord.

“ God must have been letting me sense something as I was just thinking of Eleanor on Tuesday evening, thinking about how I appreciate her teaching me well in Sunday school when I was just a child 50 some years ago. She continued to be a friend to me over the years I remained in Richlands. She was always so friendly and full of life. I appreciate that she helped me learn to love the Lord. We have lost a wonderful person, but she is getting her great reward now.

“ Mom Eleanor, as I always called her. What a beautiful woman she was, and a wonderful witness for her Savior, Jesus. I was blessed to have her in my life for 16 years. She was a wonderful wife to my Dad, David, and I have loved her since the first day we met. She became friends with my Mom, Lucie, and they were friends until my Mom's death in 2011. Thank you to all her family and friends who showed their love for her through the years, and, especially in her last days when she was in the hospital. She will be missed by many. Until we meet again, Mom. Your Step Son, Eric.
