“ Dear Friends,

What a shock to learn of Elizabeth's death this evening. I am so very sorry to hear of this. Since she worked with an insurance co. and me with the funeral home, we had lots of work time together which ended up being more get to know each other time more. I've known all of you since I was a little girl but we go to get reacquainted which was very nice. You know when your Mom passed I really was so upset cause as a child when she would come to our house with her Avon she would give me samples and samples and samples. I just loved her for that and of course I thought she was the most beautiful lady I'd ever seen and I think she was at that! Elizabeth and I would just sit and talked like old friends. She was so sweet to add me to that clan. My prayers and thoughts will be with you as you send a very fine lady on her journey. May God Bless you during this time.

Love You,

"One of those Beavers Girl"
