“ You may have never had any children of your own, but you were definitely a second mother to your many neices and nephews. I will miss you " Aunt Lib", but take comfort in knowing that your suffering is finally over and you are at peace.

“ Mr. Bill and Family, I'm so sorry to hear of Ms Libby's passing. My Mom (Ada Jewell) could not have been blessed with better neighbors than you and Ms Libby. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. If there's anything I can do/help with, please don't hesitate contacting me. I pray God will give you comfort with your loss. Altho our loss is heaven's gain of another angel with the name of "Libby"

“ Bill
Words cannot express the sorrow that we feel for your loss. Lib was a special lady that will live in our hearts forever. She was a sweetheart who never changed. You and her both were such wonderful christian friends. May God give you much peace and comfort. We will be praying for you. Heaven is rejoicing with Lib's arrival there.

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss. Death is an enemy and while we may feel helpless over death, the bible gives us encouragement for it says that "Death as the last enemy will be brought to nothing." [1 Corinthians 15:26] So be assured, death is not so powerful over God and his son, Jesus Christ. Proof of this fact is shown at Acts 24:15, for it says "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May you be comforted by these promises along with your cherished memories.
