

Ellen 'Gail' Yost

December 31, 2019

Ellen 'Gail' Yost, age 75, passed away on December 31, 2019 in a Tampa, Florida hospital following a brief illness.

Gail spent most of her life in Bluefield, Virginia. She was a 1963 graduate of Graham High School. She worked for Kroger until she moved to Tampa, Florida, where she decided to retire to enjoy the sunshine. Gail was a member of Lake Magdalene Methodist Church in Tampa. She never forgot her mountain roots and requested to be buried in Bluefield. Gail didn't have any children, but she was always a mother to her family whom she loved deeply. She always remembered every birthday and anniversary, and especially enjoyed family gatherings where she could contribute everyone's favorite homemade goodies. She was a kind person who put others first.

She was preceded in death by her father, George Yost and her mother, Macie Yost.

Those left to cherish her memory include

Sister

Barbara Lyons and husband, Mike of Kingsport, Tennessee

“ Gail and I graduated together in 1963. We both were athletic and were in the GAA club. The best memory was celebrating Graham's G-Men state championship at Betsy Kersey's house. The whole team was there. Gail was a sweet girl and always had a smile when she saw you shopping in Kroger's. Prayers for her family. God bless.

“ Gail was such a thoughtful and kind person. She was a wonderful Great Aunt to Lauren and Ellison Lyons. There was not a birthday or Christmas that she did not send a card to our girls while they were growing up. One of my favorite memories of Gail was how proud and loving she was when Lauren was born and she held her for the first.

She was dearly loved by her entire family and her loss will be greatly felt.

My deepest sympathies are with the family during this time of sorrow.
