“ We were very sorry to hear about Emily's passing. I had heard earlier this summer that she was ill and not doing so very well. I know it is difficult to say good-bye to a special loved one. Just remember all of the good times you all spent together, all of the special memories you have created as a family, and it will make her passing easier to accept. Know that she is with ones who love her dearly, as do you, and who have missed her and waited for her to join them. She was a very special person and she will be missed by each of you, and by all of her neices and nephews who had the opportunity to know and love her.

We unfortunately will be unable to attend due to work commitments, but would love to share our love and thoughts with you. I have many fond memories of times spent at Cecil and Emily's home, visiting with family and friends-and spending time together during the Wells family reunions when I was growing up. I will cherish those moments and cherish having known Emily.

We send our thoughts of empathy and sympathy at this time and pray that you will all find comfort knowing that she is home again and in the arms of loved ones.

All our love and prayers,
Linda, David, and children-Edward, Mary, Ellen and Thomas
