“ Seems just like yesterday, I was riding on his bike to church from Uncle Ronald's house and around the yard on the billy goat. I miss him so much. He always paid attention to me and made me feel at home around the family. When I was little, I looked up to him, April, and Jennifer. We used to have so much fun. I can't believe this year will be 9 years since he's been gone. Sometimes I wish I would have taken his place because he had a life and kids to raise. He was such a loving and caring person. I love and miss Ya'll. Just because we don't see other often doesn't mean I don't remember Ya'll. I miss seeing all of my family. The entire family are in my thoughts and prayers. This year I lived to my 24th birthday and to some people that may be just another day but to me, that's a day that my cousin and best friend didn't get to celebrate. I miss him so much. I hope to see the family soon.

“ Miss Trista... I am so very proud of you.. Your strength really amazes me.. Mr. Connor and Miss Brittany have a solid rock to lean upon..

I wish there were some magic words that could help heal the pain that you are suffering but I know that no such words exist. I want to express my greatest condolences to you.. And I know that when WE finish nursing classes together Eric will be smiling down on you and will be so proud.. My heart aches for you and your beautiful children. I want you to know that I am here for you anytime you need me.. I love you bunches and cant wait to have you back in class..

Mr. and Mrs. Joyce...

The one time that I met you both at the Dr. office you really made such an impression on me.. When we finally realized we were talking about Eric.. I could see how happy you were with you son...I want to express my sympathies to your and your family as well..

May God Bless you and give you strength and peace at this hard time..

GOD BLESS

“ *To all of you
I am so sorry for your loss. In 2000 I lost my daughter and grandson in a car accident. I know at this point you think you can't go on. Only God can carry you through this time. Agnes I wish I was there to give you a hug. The pain is unbearable.
Ronald you probably don't remember me but Freda and I were best friends all our lives, on Smith Ridge and best friends today. Keeping you in my prayers.

“ Ronald,Dwana,April and Jennifer -
My heart aches for you all. I haven't seen Eric's wonderful smile in several years, but I hold him and you all dear to my heart. I am thankful that he became a man of great character. My dad and brother think very highly of him. He seemed like a gem who was placed here to make life easier. Try to find comfort in the many wonderful memories you were able to share with such a wonderful person. Cherish all that you have now and all that you shared with him. Trista, I cannot imagine your pain. I know your love for him can pull you through this for yourself and your children. Lean on your love for him, your family and your God to help you!

Sincerely with love and prayer,

“ Trista,
I don't really know what to say. I was so shocked when i heard. I remember all the good times we all used to have in ROTC and hanging out at Kayla's house. We all had a great time. You and Eric were such a great couple. I have never really understood why people have to go away from us so young with a life to still live. But you and your children and your family are in my prayers. I'm sure nothing I say will take away the pain, but things will get better and in the mean time, just rememeber he is looking down on you all. God Bless.

“ Dear Ronald and Dwana,

*I am so saddened to hear about Eric. I remember Eric as a small child bouncing around with laughter and not a care in the world. I haven't seen him since he had become a man. Although my dad has told me he was one of the most dependable young men he has known and he was always willing to give a helping hand. He speaks very highly of Eric and I wish that I had known him in his adult life. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and especially with his wife and children. When you look into the eyes of your grandchildren know that Eric's spirit lives on and will always be present. God bless you all,
