“ Dear Family hope you Remember me I used to live across the road from you guys in late 50's and 60's I was truly sorry to hear about your dad also didnt know about your mother until I read this about your father. We all know they have done something we all have to do someday. I know you will miss them very much but we know where they are and also know we will see them again. Hope to see all of you someday. Take care and know my thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Best Regards Joe Seay and Family.
