“ Gary and Kelle,

I am so very sorry that I am unable to be with you today on the day of resting, for your mother and my grand mother.

One of the hardest things in having distance within the family grounds, is not having a way and a means to pay your respects in person. Euince always asked me "when ya comin' in sweetie?" and my answer was always the same.....as soon as I can get these bills lined out.

I missed out on getting to spend time with her before her passing and it's very troublesome for me; but I do know that she understood. Gary, I love you so very much and I must say that your mother did as well. She talked and talked about you in our "not often enough" conversations, and she was so proud of the man you had become and the woman you married. Can't ask for much more then that, can we?

Take good care Uncle Gary and prayerfully our paths will once again cross, if the Lord says the same.

God bless now and stay strong.....

“ To the Owens family,

I am very sorry about the death of Eunice, such a classy lady. As an employee of Hurst-Scott Funeral Home and she at Richlands Florists, we talked almost every day. She was so nice and "classy" as I used to tell her and she'd always laugh in response.

I missed her very much when she retired and I'll always remember her as a very lovely lady.
