“ We're never ready to say goodbye
To someone we hold dear.
If it were up to us, dear one,
We'd always keep you here.
But God has reasons of His own
And plans we cannot know,
And these are always for our good,
Though it may seem not so.
Our arms are empty and our hearts
Are filled with tears and grief,
For we who loved each day with you,
Now find those days too brief.
Yet if we could only heaven see,
We'd know you're happy there,
And we would never call you back
When such great joy you share.
And so we'll trust you to God's great care
And know some day, once more,
We'll hold you to our hearts again
When we reach heaven's shore.

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the Cordle family. Edith was a precious woman and friend. She was a wonderful caregiver, you couldn't find any better. She stayed with my Mother-in-law, Sadie Absher, that's when we became very good friends. I know she is in Heaven rejoicing with the friends she took care of.
