“ Dear Bob and Bobby,
Our deepest condolences go out to you at this time. Living next door to Dorothy we were often treated to Freda's joyful laugh! She knew how to make people feel loved and welcomed. Our prayer is that God will surround you with many precious memories to give you comfort and peace.
Our love and prayers,
The Hart Family

“ Dear family,
Freda was a joy in my life! She did my taxes for many years, and it was an experience that I looked forward to because of her friendly personality. Her attitude of compassion was very evident when she helped me through my mother's death (and taxes). Her final gift to me was a huge snowman, that I still cherish. You have my prayers for comfort.
