“ My Uncle George was just the biggest cut-up. He was the life of the party. He came from a “salt of the earth” family. He was hard working and loved his family. I know the last few years were very hard on him. I always loved to get to see him. I can’t express how much his presence will be missed. But he’s run his race and he’s walking today and visiting all of our loved ones that went ahead of him. I loved George and I love all of this big wonderful Baldwin family.💔
