“ I worked with George at Seaboard #1 mine . He could do many jobs underground but as he got older he took a lesser paying job out of the face . We had a new contract where one word was changed in the language and the company used this to force George back into the face . He refused , was fired . We (union) took his case to arbitration and won in his favor . His job ,all wages etc was restored to him . I appreciated his standing up for rights even in losing his employment which was no small thing . My brother in Christ has finished his race and soon we will be reunited .
