“ I would like to offer my condolences to your family for the loss of Bill. He was one of the finest partners I had the privilege of conducting business with and I also enjoyed his friendship. Bill was a family man and I was fortunate to have shared Christmas celebrations at his home. We shared many happy memories together with his sweet wife Vivian keeping me and the family in line and Bill trying to straighten all of us out. My wife, Ann, enjoyed Bill immensely and shared happy times with him for the short time she was able to see him. I could write forever about all of the trips we took together and the times at Va Tech football games. Bill will be greatly missed by many but hope all of the wonderful memories will sustain us.

*My thoughts and prayers with all of the family. I've known Mr.Bill for some time...I think he was rather pleased with the name I called him- we talked for a length of time at Food City not very long ago. He was a good man. I didn't ask him a question if I didn't want an honest answer, and that's exactly what he'd give me. He'll definitely be missed thru out the neighborhood . May God give each his comfort and peace to get thru these trying times.*
