“ Mr. Billings, Cindy, and Andrew my heart broke when I saw this link. God needed a beautiful wonderful angel in his choir, he certainly got just that when he called for Momma Billings. Please know I am here if there is anything I can do for any of you. I LOVE YOU ALL - I will be praying for comfort during this difficult time for you all.

“ Our deepest sympathy for your loss, Jim Bob. It's hard to understand why people (especially Moms) are taken from us, but find comfort in knowing you were a special part of your Moms well lived life. May God watch over us all.

“ So sorry for the loss of Harriet. She fought a long and courageous battle for you guys, but the Lord had another plan for her. I know that the pain is unbearable for you right now, but just know that your mommy/wife/grandmother is no longer in pain and is walking in paradise. So sorry I can't be there for the service, but know that I will be praying for each one of you today, tomorrow, and always!!!

“ Aunt Harriet was such a beautiful person. She was always so good to me. She is an excellent role model as a mom. The word mother definitely described her. She fought such a hard battle but we know she doesn't have to fight anymore. She wanted to come home to spend her last days with her husband, her children, her family, and her friends. I just want to thank Uncle Ellis, Annette, Jim, Sara, Cindy, and Dave for letting me spend those last days and nights with her. It is time I will always treasure. We know she is looking down at us from her heavenly home.

“ From " A prayer written during Stella's last illness" 6 November 1727

"Forgive the sorrow and weakness of those among us who sink under the grief and terror of losing so dear and useful a friend. Accept and pardon our most earnest prayers and wishes for her longer continuance in this evil world...that she may still be a comfort to us...who will want the benefit of her conversation, her advice, her good offers or her charity". This is for my Dad, brothers and sisters and all of Mom's dear, close friends. I miss you Mom!!!! annette
