“ Even though we may not know you all personally, we feel we do! I wish it was a reason for joy instead of such sorrow. May God Bless you now and forever I can only imagine how hard it is for both of your loved ones to be lost at one time. You will be in our thoughts and prayers! Like I said in Mrs. Looney's guest book. They are celebrating together in heaven. I know this may not be much consolation to those that they left behind or the cruel and senseless way they passed away. May God Bless all the lives this couple may have touched over the years

“ Dearest Chris,

Your mom and dad were such wonderful people. They are together now as they were in their lives.

Hold on to the love they had for you. You were the light of their lives and they will live on in your smile.

I know you are going through so much right now, but know you are in my thoughts, prayers, and in my heart.

I will deeply miss my friends. They will always hold a very special place in my heart.

If you need anything, please let me know. Your mom and dad were there for me when I lost my husband, and your mom gave me so much comfort. Please know that they will be very missed.

Give those "babies" a hug and kiss from their "honorary aunt". I love you all.

“ *To the family,
I just want to express my deepest sorrow during this tragic time. I had seen Harvey often deliverying around town and had talked to him on several occasions. He was such a nice person as was Valerie. They both were lovely people.
I had birthday parties there and had attended parties there along with eating there. They were a nice and wonderful couple.
My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and I pray that justice will prevail. May the Good Lord comfort the family with his wonderful embrace and get them through this awful time.*
