“ Mr.Harvey you will definitely be missed!Even though my family and I had just met you, we felt that we had surely missed out on not knowing you through the years!We were already looking forward to the reunions or other times we might get to see you and Joe and just get to know you better. The short time we spent with you will be thought of often and fondly. The twinkle in your eye and tone of your voice showed a mischievous side and that you had surely lived an interesting life. You were obviously a kind and caring gentleman who would graciously put others first. We thank you for letting us get to know you!To the family,we pray you find comfort he is in heaven and watchig over you. So sorry for the worlds loss. Regretfully we cannot come in due to previous obligations.

Love and prayers.

“ *I will certainly miss you, Uncle Harvey! I loved you so very much, I loved the joy you brought to every event, the laughter we shared, the good times and how you always made a point to take the time to hug, spend time with even just the kids of the family & made us feel welcome & loved anytime we all were able to get altogether. I loved that you never forgot how to have fun & be a kid even when you were grown-I hope I never do either! Enjoy Heaven, give Grandma Sizemore a kiss for me, & I look forward to seeing you there!?
