“ Helen was a wonderful lady all around. She always had a smile on her face no matter what she may been going through, she would always smile and say "I'm doing just fine." She fought a very long hard battle but never gave up. I never not one time heard her every complain when she was sick, she may not always known the answer to why, but I always told her God knew and that everything would be ok. What an amazing woman she was and so classy(she taught me how to dress classy too and be "REAL). Im so thankful that I had the opportunity to reunite with her and share so many precious memories with her. Heaven sure did gaine a beautiful angel when it was her time to go. I love and miss you so much Helen but I know that one day I will get to see you again. To her family I still pray everyday that God will give you strength with each passing day!
