

Helen Smith

April 28, 1923 - July 9, 2012

Helen Loedio Helton Smith, age 89, of Abingdon, Virginia, formerly of Richlands, Virginia, passed away Monday, July 9, 2012 at the Mayfair House, Claypool Hill, Virginia following a lengthy illness. She was born in Russell County, Virginia and was the daughter of the late Seaton and Ocie Wells Helton of Russell County, Virginia. Helen was a graduate of Honaker High School, class of 1941. Widowed at age 30, while living in Arizona, she moved with her children back to Virginia. With unfaltering faith and strength, she worked, educated her children, and returned to college herself to graduate at age 53 in 1976 from the Clinch Valley College with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education. Helen continued to educate herself and in 1978, at age 55 she graduated from the University of Virginia with a Master of Education degree, she did all of this for her love of teaching. She previously taught in Wise County before transferring to Russell County and eventually retiring from Honaker Elementary School. Helen was an inspiration to all who knew her. She was also a Charter Member of Gethsemane Baptist Church in Richlands, Virginia. She fought a good fight, she finished her course and she kept the faith. Helen's arrival in heaven will be busy as she greets her parents, and her husband, Paul Lewis Smith; her son, Jerry Lewis Smith; her two sisters, Dixie Osborne and Eleanor Clark; and two brothers, Helmer Helton and Eugene Helton. “ What a special lady she was. I will miss her smiling face and her telling me when I left in the evenings from Mayfair to "have a safe trip." Sorry, I wasn't able to be at her funeral. Mom was in the hospital during all of this time. I will always remember Helen telling me about working at the switchboard at the hosital. I admired her and she certainly added to my life. Barbara

“ So sad to hear of your Mother's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God and His marvelous grace be with you at this sad time. I will be unable to attend the funeral but my love and prayers are with all of you.

Helen was one of the most courageous women I ever met. She inspired so many with her strong will and heart felt knowledge that she could do anything she set her mind to do. She looked adversity in the eye and stormed ahead as only she and that willful personality could do. What a woman, what a Mother. We are all better people for having known her.

God bless each of you is my prayer.
