“ Kathy, Zed, Zee, Jessica, Mrs. Luttrell and all the rest of the family: We are so sorry for your loss. We know that you have lost a major part of your family and your life, and our prayers are that just having his love and keeping your precious memories of him will help you through these trying days. Though sadness cannot last forever, loving memories do. . . and the music of your loved one's life echoes now in you. May God sustain all of you and comfort you during this time of sorrow.

“ My Uncle Jess had a great zest for life and it was easy to see why. He had a wonderful, loving wife and a beautiful family. He was a sweet man who had a great sense of humor. He brought a smile to everyone, particularly when we would get together during the Christmas holiday.

We are all better for having known him. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time.

God bless.

“ Our family joins with so many others who knew Uncle Jess in offering our deepest sympathy on his passing. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in his passing you can celebrate the end of a very long and productive life.

The measure of a life well-lived is not in possessions or weath, but rather through the lives touched and the legacy left behind. You can proudly and confidently say that his indeed was a life well-lived and that he was a good man.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.

*Sincerely and with much Love,
Wayne, Melissa and Allen Denny*

“ I would like to extend my gratitude to the family for allowing me to share in some of the fond memories of your loved one. There has to be some comfort in knowing that you had such a wonderful icon in your lives that guided, influenced and molded you into the individuals that Jess was proud to introduce as his family. His love for his family was evident in his daily life. Marian you are the love of his life. Even in his days of not feeling so well he never waivered on his love for you. He would say that not only were you beautiful on the outside but also within. Cherish The Memories! Jo Ann

“ John,

So sorry about your Dad's passing and I wish I could have seen you the day of his funeral but I was unable to attend. But I will be thinking of you and your Mom (she's so beautiful) and maybe we can attempt to stay in touch. Please take care. Love you.

“ Dear Marion and family,
I was so sad and sorry to hear of Jess's death. It was like a part of our own family was lost as we all grew up together. My son Adam and myself will miss his beautiful BLUE STAR he put up at CHRISTMAS time. All our love and prayers go to each of you and our memories will never die or fade of Jess. Love and Prayers,
Jim Ed Lambert
