“ I will always remember Uncle Herb for his genuine smile and good natured ways. He was always good to us as kids. He was mostly quiet but did have a few good sayings. One I have kept all these years, "Uncle Herb when are you going to get married? The first. You're getting married on the first? Yes, the first chance I get!" That always made us kids laugh. And he did get married to a wonderful lady, Fran. She was so good to him and made his last years happy. We will miss a good uncle.

I will always remember Uncle Herbert. He was always kind to us as children. He had such a great sense of humor. Was always there for my mom Shelby and his sister. He always took my Grandma Walters around and they would visit me after I got married to Ken Joyce. Just special times and special memories. We were definitely blessed to have him in our life.
