

Ida Altizer

February 22, 1911 - April 3, 2007

Ida Belle Altizer, 96, of Cedar Bluff, Virginia passed away Tuesday, April 3, 2007 at her home following a lengthy illness. She was born in Russell County, Virginia and was the daughter of the late Charles Bradford and Mary Jane Plaster Richardson, both Russell County natives. She was a lifelong resident of the area and was an active member of the Cedar Bluff United Methodist Church. She was a Leader of Helen Repass Circle from 1973-1975, missing only one meeting. She was Lay Member to annual conference in 1970. She took care of selling dish clothes for her circle for many years, and was well known for her chicken and dumplings and fried apple pies. She was on the road several times a week; taking people to Doctor's offices, grocery stores, etc. Every Sunday morning she was always up and ready and on her way to pick up her friends for Sunday School and Church, and would always see that they got back home safely. She was a fine lady and will be missed by all those who knew her. In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Darvil Altizer; 1 son, Robert "Bob" Coy Richardson; 1 Granddaughter, Kim Richardson; as well as several brothers and sisters. Survivors are Son Harold Eugene Richardson of Cedar Bluff, Virginia Sister Victoria Fulton of Abingdon, Virginia Grandchildren Lanny Richardson, Terry Compton and wife, Kim, Rodney Richardson, Dwayne Richardson, Gary Richardson, Kathy Harris, Connie Payton Several Great Grandchildren Special Caregivers Patsy Rose, Elizabeth Osborne, and Gail Hill Funeral services for Ida Altizer will be conducted at 2:00pm Saturday, April 7, 2007 at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home Chapel in Richlands, Virginia with the Rev. Jackie Strickler officiating. Interment will follow in Greenhills Memory Gardens at Claypool Hill, Virginia. Pallbearers will be family and friends. The family will receive friends at the Hurst-Scott Funeral Home in Richlands, Virginia Friday evening after 6:00pm.
