“ My grandmother was the most wonderful woman I've ever known. She was my hero. In 7th grade we had to write a paper on who our hero was. I didn't write about famous people like other kids. I wrote about granny. She welcomed everyone of every race, creed, religion and sexual identity into her home with open arms and no judgement. She was a Saint. A truly admirable woman. she will forever be in my heart. She helped raise me with dignity, moral values and instilled God into my heart. There's no woman like her. She prayed with her hands tied and beat the devil by a land slide. I'll miss her every day but know that she walks with me every step of the way now.

“ Aunt Lean was an energetic lady who loved life. Her passing reminds us all that an entire generation of aunts and uncles will soon have left us. Leaving memories and the “old ways”, she will be missed to everyone who knew her. Hugs to my cousins.

“ This woman LOVED everyone. I was a teenager when I met her and she took me right in as one of the gang. She would fuss at me like I was one of her own but at the same time loved me while she was doing it. The world has lost a bright light but heaven has gained a glowing soul.
