“ Dave, we were so saddened to hear about Inez—there’s nothing like a Mother and her love. She’s in God’s hands and I bet she’s looking over you hoping you know that she’s okay and that she loves you very much—giving you strength to be strong for your family and loved ones. I remember our last visit at your and Jackie’s home and Inez was there—very sweet and caring person and her love for family was evident. Our hearts and prayers are with you and your family—please reach out if you need anything!

“ Dave we are sorry for the loss of your mother, she will always be cherished and never forget her. A mother is very precious and we hold them close to our hearts for as long as we live. Just know that she is with God now and he will keep her safe and close to him and will never suffer or hurt anymore. Our hearts go out to you and your family in this time of need to understand why but we will never understand when it comes to God's will. May God be with you and give you strength during this time of grief. If you need anything please let us know.
