“ Aunt Irene, Heaven has another Angel. I will greatly miss your many questions about what I'm doing, where I'm going and how long before I return. Now you can watch everything from above. :-) I love and will miss you deeply. Love your great-niece xoxo

“ I will always remember Aunt Irene for her stories and great sense of humor. She had the best jokes and was always young at heart. She was a kind soul who could always find a place for a stray cat. You will be missed but not forgotten.

“ There is not a way to describe my Aunt Irene but WHAT A WOMAN. I am so thankful that I was blessed with her in my life. She taught me by watching her life to stand true to my Lord and also how to deal with any difficult times I may have in my life. I will forever remember the trips she and Uncle Rex and my sister Beth would take to the Ponderosa in Wardell to eat on Saturday nights. I will also remember always having prayer when we stayed at her house over night. I love to hear Aunt Irene pray, it was like she was talking straight to God and you knew that she was ringing the prayer bells of heaven. Aunt Irene I love you.
