

Jack Dempsey Addington Sr.

He was the son of Joseph Jackson Addington and Ethel Perkins Addington. He was married to his beloved wife, Pauline Dye Addington, for 69 years. Dempsey was a loving husband, brother, uncle, father, grandfather, great grandfather, and a great great grandfather.

He was a retired owner of Vansant Gulf in Vansant, VA and Addington Boats and Campers in Cedar Bluff, VA. He served his community as well as his country with great pride. The most important goal in his life was to see his family and friends serve the lord and make it to heaven. He blessed his family with his wit and sound mind until the day he met the Lord.

In addition to his parents, he was greeted in heaven by his 2 brothers, Edward Addington and Dallas Addington; 3 sisters, Marie Smith, Jean Eure, and “ Sending love and prayers for each of you. I know how very close all of you are and the loss of your precious Husband, Daddy and Grandfather is heartbreaking. May God comfort your hearts and give you peace that only he can give. I spent many nights at their home growing up and always was made to feel like family, we always eat good, we prayed, we sang while Sister Pauline played the piano...such wonderful memories. I am so sorry for your family's great loss but Heaven is certainly sweeter! Love to all and tight hugs! Judy Peak VanDyke
