

Jack Junior Elswick

February 11, 1931 - August 5, 2022

Jack Junior Elswick, age 91, passed away Friday, August 5th surrounded by family at the Commonwealth senior living home in Claypool Hill, VA.

Jack was a resident of Bug Road in Pounding Mill for the past 45 years. He served his country in the United States Army stationed in Okinawa, Japan from 1949-1951 and was a retired coal miner. Jack was the best Volkswagen specialist mechanic in this area. His hobbies included hunting and fishing, racing anything that had wheels, and watching westerns.

Jack loved his daughters fiercely and had a big heart for all his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He will be remembered for having a quick wit and being the first in the room to crack a joke. His light-heartedness and laid-back personality will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Jack and Gladie were charter members of Reynolds Ridge Community Church.

He was born February 11th, 1931, in McDowell County, WV, and was a son of the late James Earl and Cora Alice Caywood Elswick.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his loving wife of 68 years, Gladie Elswick; son, Jackie Lee Elswick; son-in-law, John Graham; grandchild, Jamie Lynn Elswick; two sisters, Barbara Sue Whitt, and Juanita Keith; and three brothers, Gene Elswick, Charles Elswick, and Doug Elswick.

He is survived by

“ Everything I love from nature to fishing, my Dad showed me how to do it all! From killing my first squirrel at 12, and him daring me to take a bite of it's brain, (so I did 🤢) I always trusted him. My Dads light and energy can never be forgotten. It's been two years and I miss you so much Dad
