“ Jack , I met you when I was a freshman in high school . I was given the job of interviewing new teachers for the school paper . You were very kind to me that day & you never forgot me & I as well never forget you , You had a great life & many successes . I rem. when you worked in the Operating room at The Clinic . Seem there was nothing you couldn't do . Your Parents were so proud of you . Rest High on The Mountain my Friend . Pat Rickey Lyons

“ He will be missed by us. He was a great customer and friend, more like family. Gracie will miss her best buddy. She always would hold the door open for him when he would come to the restaurant and she was there. He would always ask how lil curly sue a.k.a Gracie was.
