“ It's been so long since I've seen Jackie, but just seeing her picture flooded my brain with wonderful memories and thoughts of happy times. She had the most loving personality and excelled in everything she did. She touched my life in the most positive manner and I am a better because of her influence and kind deeds.

“ Jackie Sue was my childhood friend. We both lived in Brooklyn. One memory we shared was playing “Jacks” on her front porch. She was a kind and sweet person. I Lost touch with her over the years but always had fond memories of her. We lost a wonderful and kind soul when God took her home. I am just thankful God allowed me to spend time with her and call her my friend. I pray God shed His grace on the family, comfort them as only He can. I know their hearts are broken. Love and prayers, Charlotte Robinett, NC.
