“ I hate to hear this. Jim was a great guy. I hadn't seen him in years but was fortunate to get to see him and talk to him on a regular basis the last several months. I grew up playing ball and being friends with Jim JR. I'll always remember our talks at church and getting the brotherly hugs after church. Prayers for Kay and the family. He will be missed by many. “ I remember all those years ago meeting Jim and Kay. The blessing of knowing them over 30 yrs and a friend who enjoyed visiting them at their home when all our kids were young. We may not have gotten together as often as we would have liked but we always kept each other in prayer and would pick up wherever we left off. You all will always be close to my heart. I Love you all . Lynn Mitchell
