“ Pat and Family
We wanted to express our heartfelt sympathy to you in the loss of your husband-father. I know his leaving will leave a big hole in your hearts, but prayerfully, the memories that you have will carry you through the hard times. May God bless and keep you all and if ever there is anything we can do, don't hesitate to call. Derek, Paul is out to sea right now, and won't be able to make contact with you, but when he returns, I'm sure he will contact you.
