“ We used to hang out on the bleachers before the morning bell rang in High School. Out of all the people I couldn't connect with, James was someone that I could. Life happened and we went our separate ways.

My condolences are to his family and friends. R.I.P brother, till we meet again.

“ I can't even begin to choose one of my favorite memories of you. Growing up with you as my little brother gave me a best friend early in life. I loved shooting our guns, catching up, listening to music and drinking beer in the pool with you during the summers. I can't describe the pain that I'm experiencing at this moment. I hope you are at peace and I can't wait to see you again one day. You will never be forgotten. I love you JW.

*Love your big sister,
Dusty*

“ When I met JW he was in diaper waiting at bus stop for Tommy Mitchell to get of the school bus. He was always at the school bus stop waiting. I have watched you grow over the past years from a son, brother and nephew to an Amazing Husband, Father, Friend and most of all like a son to me. You was my family and I will cherish all the memories I have of us and the family. It breaks my heart to see you gone. You had such a future ahead of you. I know you are with Uncle Tommy, Uncle Winkie, Uncle Bobby, Aunt Brenda, Mamaw Pat and many more family and friends. You are know our guardian angel and most of all your wife's and 3 kids. I will never forget you son. Till I see you again. Love you Always and Forever xoxo Son (JW).
