“ In October 2016 I got to sit down with James at Carol’s House and play some bluegrass gospel songs. It was a great afternoon. He played an original song that he wrote and “A House of Gold” several times. God bless!

“ Mr Salyers was such a kind hearted soul. He was so very kind to me and Amy. He would come see us at the clinic and tell us how much he cared for us. He was a sweet kind person. I'll always remember him and hope to see him in heaven one day. It was a pleasure knowing him. In the presence of the Lord! your friend Barbara Kinder
