“ Dear Family and Friends,

I was very sorry to learn about the death of your dear loved one. Although, I did not know him personally, I do know to well the loss of someone very close to you.

The purpose of writing is to share some comforting thoughts from God's Word the Bible.

At John Chap. 5:28-29 God has promised in the near future "all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out".

We have the chance to be reunited with our dead loved ones and with the prospect of never having to part again.

Revelation Chap. 21:3-4 states that God is going to do away with "pain,sickness, and death forever".

These are only two of many wonderful Bible truths. If you would like to learn of some more, please feel free to email me at the given address.

Sincerely,

Debbie Turner

“ When darkness falls upon your heart and soul. I'll be the light that shines for you.
When you forget how beautiful you are
I'll be there to remind you.
When you can't find your way,
I'll find my way to you.
When troubles come around,
I will come to you. I'll be your shoulder when you need someone to lean on. Be your shelter.
When you need someone to see you through. I'll be there to carry you.
I'll be there. I'll be the rock that will be strong for you.
The one that will hold on to you.
When you feel that rain falling down.
When there's nobody else around.
I'll be. no matter what I love ya girl
