“ Dad-

I am proud to be your son and will miss you always. You taught me many things about life and what it takes to be a husband and raise a family; that family is important. I hope I can share some of that with my children as they grow up.

I am glad that you were able to see your grandchildren and get to know them. They will always have those happy memories of you. We'll be waiting to see you again one day. I love you dad.
