“ I'll always have fond memories of the times I have shared with James over my lifetime. All the trips he and Sue made to see us in Newport News always brought great laughter into our home. I could always look forward to good, good joke from him. James was family and we are sad for his loss. We appreciate all he did for Joe. It is a sweet Christmas reunion for our beloved aunt Sue and James. May God ease your pain and lay his Holy Spirit upon you.

“ I am James nephew and words can;t express how much I will miss him, his memories will haunt me everyday. He taught me everything when I was a child. We went fishing, hunting, and he taught me to swim. I spent more time with him and my aunt Sue probably more time than I did with my mother and father. He was also a father to me, he was always there, teaching me all my morals, and I know the feeling was mutual. I will always love him and greatly miss him. I tried to attend the services, but failed to find a way there from Indiana. He would understand, but I would still be disappointed. Miss you so much and always will.

“ Rest in peace uncle James, you raised me, along with mom and aunt sue. you were a parent to me and I know the feeling was mutual. I wish I could be there, God, knows I tried, to help send you off, but could not make it happen, you would know why and understand. You will be with me everyday now, haunting my memories. I love and I will miss you always.

We always enjoy them when they came to visit my mom and us. Always be appreciative how well he had taken care of Joe and being a good friend and like a brother to him these pass years, I know Joe will be at a loss without him. “ Bonnie ad Jerry
I am sad at our loss, James was more like a brother than a brother In law. We spent hundreds of hours together, fishing working on business and just talking. I talked with him on December 5th..He was an intelligent and sensible Man whom I admired and loved.
He told me recently that he adopted the Hess family over 40 years ago
