“ Eddie and family, I am so sorry to learn of Janice's passing. We met as teenagers and attended Baptist Valley A/G. Janice was always the same friendly person no matter when we saw each other. She was like her mother Ella, genuine. As I remember Janice, I will cherish the good memories. I ask God to bless and comfort you at this be time. Sandy Williams

I got to know and love Janice while Blane and Brynn were students at CBES. She was such a sweet lady who absolutely loved all her grandchildren unconditionally. She was a good role model for them My prayers are with her family. May the Lord place His loving arms around you and see all of you through this difficult time. Cherish your precious memories of this fine lady.

*In His love,
Sharon Lowe*
