“ I remember Jason's smile and delightful personality as a five-year old in my first class.He saw me at the Richlands library when he was in high school and we had a pleasant conversation.
There are no words of comfort I can offer, but can only pray that our Heavenly Father will give you peace.

“ Joe & Reva,
I regret that I can not be with you during this time. Remember that God is still on the throne, and He knows what He is doing, even in this time you are going through.
Know that I love both of you and my prayer is that you can find peace and comfort in your heart.
May God Be With You,

“ Joseph & Reva

It seems like we found each other, lost touch, reconnected and now lost again, My heart goes out to you both, although we only knew each other a short time, It seems Jason brought a smile & a laugh to everyone he knew..... I am thankful for the time that we had together, even though it was short, I am sure he is somewhere smiling down.... May God be with you in this time of sorrow.

“ Joe, Reva:

As you know, you guys are our own family. Words are hard as this is our own love. The love is there, the hurt, the pain, the understanding, feelings that words can not express. Know our love and thoughts are always with you even when we are apart. God's comfort my family.

“ Joe: My heartfelt prayers go out to you and Reba. May you take comfort in knowing that we all are thinking of you. Although I only knew him a short while, he listened to my stories of when we worked at Claypool Hill and was eager for me to tell tales on you. Take care my friend and hang in there.
