“ I know you don't know me, but I wanted to express my sympathy for your loss. No doubt many people have expressed words such as "It was for the best", or "It was God's will". But, it was not God's will for mankind to die. Trying to find something positive about death is not always easy to the family who is grieving, like you are. Please know "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous". (Acts 24:15) I can't imagine the pain you are feeling right now. So, finding the right words to say is difficult. That is why I wanted to take the time and allow God's words to comfort you.

The Bible assures us at (Psalms 34:18) that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Isn't that a beautiful thought? Yes, He is near to you right now. No doubt, you have communicated to God, who is called the "Hearer of prayer" at (Psalms 65:2). Not only does He want us to throw our burdens upon Him, but he also has the power to sustain us. (Psalm 55:22) Jehovah God can and will equip you with "power beyond what is normal" to cope with your loss from one day to the next. (2 Corinthians 4:7) Again, I am so sorry.
