“ I remember the first time I saw Jeanette and Sherry, she was so timid and shy and just sat quietly in a chair with her little sister. It took time for her to come out of her shell and little Sherry, always looked after her big sister. I hope that you got some peace and enjoyment in your life, Jeanette. God knows it wasn't easy for you. We all love you and so sorry that we lost touch over the years. I am sure the family was waiting for you and you are wrapped in the love of all of them. RIP little one, you are finally at peace. Love your cousin Nikki

Mike you took really good care of Jeanette and I know you will miss her and that the days ahead will be hard. But know that we all admire you and are proud of you for being such a good cousin and caregiver to her. Sending love and prayers . RIP Jeanette you are finally home with Ruth and Al in Heaven.
