“ We are very sorry for the loss you all have endured. We cant even imagine the sorrow and heart ache that you all are feeling right now. The one thing to keep in mind though is that God has a plan for everything. We may not understand right now and we may never understand, but be assured that Jeff is in a better place than any of us could ever imagine and that with the grace of the good Lord we will see him again one day. Keep faith and God will pull you all through this!!!

We are thinking of you all and we will keep all of you all in our prayers.

“ To the Ball family you are in my thoughts and prayers. I couldn't believe it when I heard the news. I had met him at Pizza Hut and it was always so great to have him wait on me. He was one of the kindest and nicest people I have ever met. His personality was just a joy!! He lit up the place with his smile!! I hated it when I went up there and he wasn't there I missed his friendly face and kind words!! Mr & Mrs. Ball I can't tell you in enough words what a kind person Jeff was. May God Bless your entire family and take you into his gentle hand and guide you through this!! Jeff will never be forgotten!

“ Jeff had the sweetest personality...always cared about others..he always asked about my girls and what was going on in their lives. Just two months ago when my brother-in-law was in the hospital and terminally ill he would stay in the hospital room with him at night when my sister could not be there...things like that will never be forgotten...Love and prayers are going out to the whole family. “ *Dear Ball Family,
We offer our sincerest condolences for your loss. My family and I loves your family greatly and will pray for you.*

Back in the days when Keith and I were running around, Jeff was always at the house having a blast getting into something. The one thing I always remember is that Keimer, Keith, Petey, and Jeff were always smiling, no matter what.

The days have have spread us all apart and many things happen in the course of everyday life that erases memories, but your family was always there for me. I will remember Jeff fondly and I pray for all of the brothers and the parents.

No parent should ever have to go through this experience and I can only imagine how hard this is for the brothers. You have my deepest sympathies.

“ Mr and Mrs Ball Kimer, Keith and Pete,
I am so so sorry to hear about sweet little Jeff. I started thinking about the second grade was the first time I met him. We had Sally Blankenship and we were her favorite. I clearly remember we were to go home and write down what fruits and vegetables we ate at dinner. Jeff came in the next day and said I ate apples, organges, grapes, and broccoli and thats all I ate, Ms. B said Jeff are you sure and he had this big grin with a missing front tooth and said yes ! Once for about 2 weeks he told everyone and Ms B he had changed his name to I think Steve! What I loved the most about my friend was he never changed, he was the sweetest in the second grade as the last time I seen him. Please Know I am praying for you all and feel so blessed to have had the opportunity such a wonderful friend in my life.
