“ My heart is broken, Jeremy had become a special friend to me! We talked a few weeks ago and he was going to bring Bella by to visit. I will have a hard time making Green bean Casserole now without thinking about him. I lived In Jackson Tennessee and it was half way for him when he lived in Texas. He would stop and spend the night and rest up. He would call me Mom and I called him son. Anytime he sent me a message on Facebook it would be hey Mom what have you been up too! I guess when he stopped by I would fix him peanut butter pie and Greenbean Casserole and treat him like one of my kids.. I will miss his little messages and him sharing pictures of his baby girl! His last message was Mom I have had you on my heart! My heart breaks and my thoughts and prayers are going up for his family!

“ Never will forget our road trips when we worked together in Lebanon at Issues and Answers. I never will forget my transmission went out of my car and you gave me a ride to and from work. We became pretty good friends. I hadn't really hung out with him in years though. I can remember he always kept a smile on his face and could make you laugh. He had the most prettiest eyes. My sincere condolences to his family. RIP Jermey
