“ My cousin Jerry was always special to me and still is. We had alot of fun times together. I loved to make him laugh. when i was in town we'd go to King Kone and slop down some footlong hotdogs and talk about the good ol' days. always loved to hear him sing. He was one of a kind. I know he's happy to be home with his mom and brother. No more goodbyes. I wrote the poem below years ago. Hope it gives you peace.

" Farewell "

I've laid down by the still waters for rest till judgement day Where peace at last has found me like a long lost stray And though I leave behind so many dear to me I'm truly happy now as God intended me to be Now I may be absent to touch and to speak In spirit I'm always with you For I've reached heaven's peak So weep not too long for me for I've found the promised land And soon we will stand in the garden together forever hand in hand A-men
