“ One of my favorite memories of Uncle Jerry was when he took me when I was maybe 8 or 9 to feed a baby calf when we came home to visit. I can remember trying to hold onto the bottle with all I had and him laughing so hard standing next to me. Uncle Jerry you will be dearly missed. To JC and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Sending lots of hugs and prayers.

“ What I remember most about your dad JC is when he was married to your mom Susie and then they had you. How much they both loved you. You were an adorable little boy and the apple of his eye. May he rest in peace and the wonderful memories you have carry you through this difficult time.
