“ My heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Jimmie. I attended Whitewood school with Jimmie from the first day of the first grade through our graduation. I have many fond memories of him and although our paths took different directions after high school, we remained friends through the years. Jimmie officiated the funerals of several of my relatives and it was at his church that my son Patrick accepted Christ. Jimmie will be sorely missed by his community and beyond.

“ I really enjoyed Jimmie’s sense of humor even one time when I was the butt of his joke. I was in my early teens, about 5 years younger than Jimmie. I borrowed a hacksaw from him to use on one of the many "projects" I always seemed to be involved with. I accidentally broke the blade and when I returned it to him I told him I would pay for the blade. He said okay, the cost would be $10.00, which of course I didn’t have. So I told him I would have to pay him later and he then started laughing, telling me to forget it, that he had plenty hacksaw blades and their cost was less than a dollar anyway. So we both had a good laugh, mine mostly from a joy of relief. Unfortunately, I didn’t see him very often over the past several years, having lived out of the area, but I continued to hold Jimmie in high regard because he was such a good, honest Christian that practiced what he preached. -Ronnie Dale Jewell

“Dot, Rocky, Jaybird, Anita, Earl & Christine, So sad to know Jimmie is not here with us now. He was such a sweet soul and so loved by our family. Even though I didn't get to see him much any more, by living in another state- I always feel close to my "roots", having known all of the family since I was born. . I loved Aunt Margaret, Uncle Stuart, (always called them aunt and uncle) and Kirby. I remember so many laughs we had together. I had many meals with you all and Jimmie and Kirby were like brothers to my Dad- Harold Cole. Jimmie preached a beautiful sermon at my mother, Virginia Cole's, funeral. My Mom was especially close to Jimmie and Kirby. No one has any doubt where Jimmie is now. His last breath here was his first breath with Jesus. Just knowing that he is now with our loved ones that have already gone on before is a great comfort. I know he will be so missed and I pray for peace and healing for the family. We all will be together soon- I want to finish this race well and hear what Jimmie has already heard- "Well done my good and faithful servant". Carol Cole-Ownbey and Barbara Cole- Maxwell.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Jimmie was a wonderful man who always had a smile for everyone. Know that he is finally home where he has always lived his life to be. I can see him now walking the streets smiling and waving to everyone he meets. Such a sweet man who will surely be missed.
