“ A Poem I found, may be of some comfort:
You can shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all he has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see him, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow because of yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember him and only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what he'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on. I found this poem, put on this sight, in memory of Our Dear Jimmy. For Jimmy's Mom&Dad&Family and Friends, With love to all.

“ It's still like a bad dream that you can not wake from. The days heal the sorrow that is within. All of the summers, and days that we spent together as kids. We all grow up and have familys of our own and loose touch, but we still all are family. We always are there for each other ever what happens. I know you are in heaven with mama, papa, and ever one else. The only thing that I can pray for is insted of this pulling our family apart that it will bring us closer together. We need to put pride on the back burner and remember "FAMILY"

“ Jimmy,

Please rest in peace and know that we all love you and miss you so much. I am sure that in time our pain will ease but at times right now it feels unbearable. At your funeral we played go rest high on that mountain and the opening words touched me. It says "I know your life on earth was troubled and only you could know the pain". I know that I could not understand your pain but I wish that I had the chance to help ease it for you, You had so much to offer and so much life still to live. I hope you know how much you mean to all of us and how empty our lives are without you. I love you always. You will never be forgotten and you will live forever in our hearts. We miss you so much every day and wish you were still here with us. Especially for mom. We all know you were always the favorite, the baby. I wish you had known how much you were loved and how much support you had. Find comfort in the arms of an angel and know that we love you.
