“ Paul and Joan Banner use to be our neighbors a long time ago. When we moved in Joan fixed us a meal and brought it over. She was so thoughtful to do that. One time she baked us a pumpkin pie: we weren't home so she left it on the back porch. When I got home I noticed the pan, it was empty, our dog Missy had ate every crumb. It must have really been good!.. Joan was such a nice person. She and Paul kind of took our youngest son Justin under their wing while they lived here. He loved going over to Joan and Pauls just to talk. I know she will be missed She was a fine lady!. Jim and Bonnie Wren, Waxhaw, N.C.
